

ECLO services – City Road

Advice and support for people experiencing sight loss

Eye clinic liaison officers (ECLOs) are available at Moorfields Eye Hospital in City Road to assist those living with sight loss. This includes patients, their relatives and carers.

Our drop in service is open from 9am - 5pm, Monday-Friday. The ECLO office is located on the ground floor of the hospital (next to the cashiers' office).

ECLO's at Moorfields Eye Hospital, City Road:

- David Samuels
- Samantha McBride

- Molly Randall

We provide advice and support on:

- Living with sight loss and remaining independent.
- Coping with and managing particular eye conditions.
- Services outside the hospital including social services, local support groups and national organisations for people with sight loss.
- Registering with the local council and getting a Certificate of Vision Impairment (CVI).

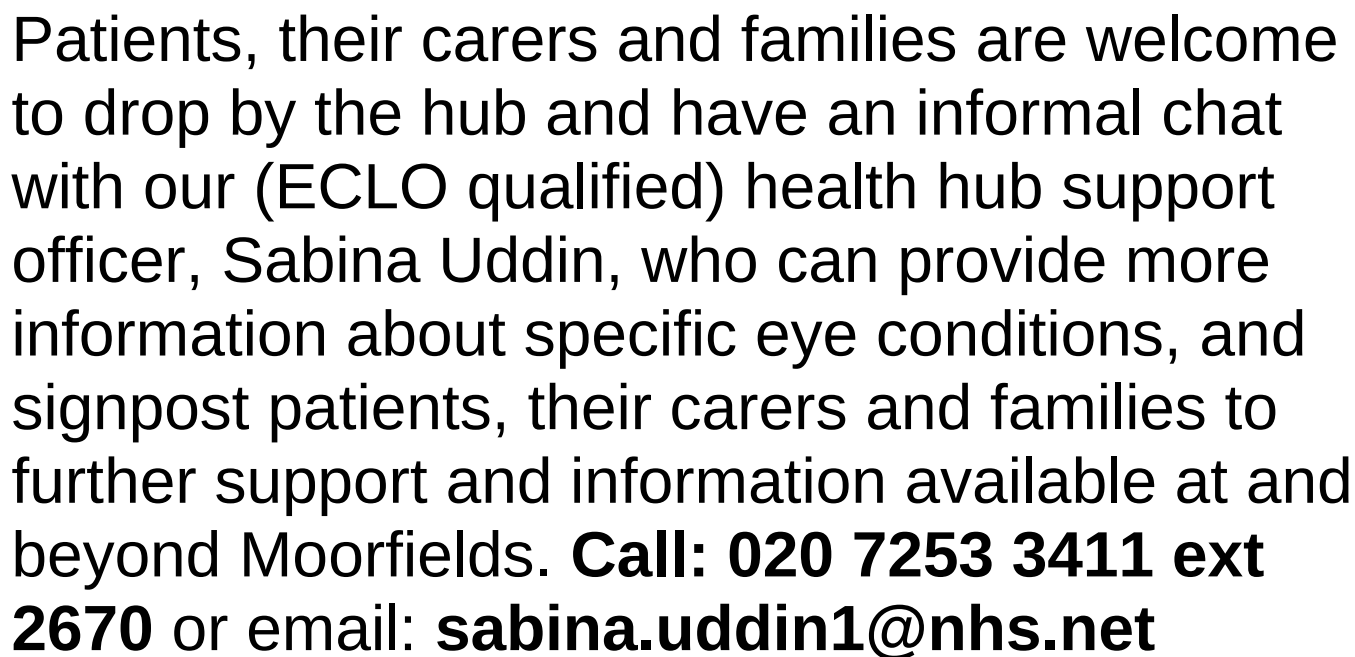

Certificate of Vision Impairment (CVI)

The ECLOs at City Road will explain the process of registration and complete the clerical section of the CVI with the patient, if this is agreed by the consultant ophthalmologist, who will complete the clinical section.
