Outpatient prescriptions for children

The policy at Moorfields Eye Hospital is for prescribed medications to be collected from the hospital pharmacy only if your child’s condition is urgent, or if the medication is a specialist medicine.

Non-urgent condition
If your child’s condition is non-urgent and treatment is not required immediately, the hospital doctor will ask your child’s GP to write a prescription for your child’s medication. The hospital doctor or prescriber will write out a prescription for you to take to your child’s GP. Please take this prescription to your child’s GP as it contains the information for him or her to issue a new prescription, which can then be dispensed by your local community pharmacy.

The GP will also receive an information letter in the post up to seven days after your hospital visit.

Urgent condition
If your child’s condition urgently needs treatment such as postoperative discharge medicine, medicine that needs to start within a few days, or highly specialist medicines, a supply for up to four weeks will be prescribed and dispensed by the hospital pharmacy.

If your child needs to be on the medication for longer than four weeks, the doctor will write the full instructions to your GP on the prescription form and in the information letter sent by post to explain the dose, how often to use the medication and how long your child needs to remain on the medication. Please give the white copy of this prescription to your GP, so that he or she can prescribe the medication to be continued.

If you need a repeat prescription for your child’s medication, you should get one from your GP, as you will be unable to get a repeat prescription from the outpatient department.
